

Welcome to Kwetu Nairobi

Kwetu Nairobi stands on a grand level of its own, comprising five individual, but interconnected blocks with 102 rooms of varying sizes, 6 restaurants & bars, 10 meetings & event spaces, a heated swimming pool, and a luxury Spa. The Blocks are surrounded by peaceful forested landscapes, each with its own private butler to cater to the needs of each guest ensuring complete comfort and instilling a feeling that Kwetu is truly their “home away from home”.

Our Story

In the late 1800s, buried amidst the towering trees on the edge of Nairobi's Karura Forest, a small house held its ground in the heart of what was historic Kenya. Although small in relation to its vast surroundings, the power of the grey-stone walls of this 1950s home kept its residents safe and comfortable. As Kenya's economy grew and some surrounding trees were cleared to make way for the rise in coffee plantations, the little home faced major challenges to remain relevant. It was then that it grew into a guest house, larger in size, but without losing its homely charm and providing a safe home and harbor for the numerous travelers of the day. By growing from a small historic home to an upscale boutique hotel, Kwetu perfectly fuses old historic charm and modern contemporary design with a blend of homely comfort and luxury. Despite being so close to Kenya's cosmopolitan city, guests can easily forget where they are; be it lost in the peace of its lush greenery and quiet breezes, amongst its tantalizing dishes in a modern contemporary African setting, through the pampering in its relaxingly wonderful Spa, refreshing dips in the pool or even just a relaxing sundowner at one of the different bars. Now, almost half a century later, the evolution of this land with its small residential guest house is remarkable, as has the development of this unique boutique hotel.
